

Travel to the next Maha Kumbh Mela: Haridwar, India: January, 2010

We are very pleased to be planning our next Pilgrimage to India. According to the astrological predictions, the Kumbha Mela is to be held in Haridwar 2010. This begins in January and February 2010 and concludes in July. The first scheduled pilgrimage to the Kumbha Mela will begin on January 25 and conclude on February 9. A second pilgrimage is scheduled to begin on February 8 and conclude on February 22nd. A third pilgrimage is scheduled to begin on February 20 and conclude on March 7. A fourth pilgrimage is also scheduled to begin on March 6 and conclude on March 23.

The Maha Kumbha is the culmination of 12 Purna Kumbha Melas. According to the ancient mythology of India, the planets align every 12 years creating a unique divine energy at one of four sacred locations. Millions come together for holy bathing rituals in the sacred prayags and to receive blessings from the Saints & Sages who rarely leave their Himalayan caves, yet attend this event. From the Kumbha (water pot) great amrit kalash, or divine nectar of knowledge is said to pour forth on all. Such darshan accelerates the process of cleansing the ego, and blesses the soul. To imbibe this amrit requires a bit of “churning” within one’s inner self. The Maha Kumbh Mela will offer a personal reaffirmation of faith and can affect dramatic changes in the destiny of humanity. It is surely a life-changing event!

We have arranged our accommodations at a new 4-star hotel in Haridwar, located a pleasant 30 minute walking distance from Hari - Ki - Pairi and the Mela grounds. We have also procured a camp site with a large tent on the Mela grounds, so we have a place to do our Yoga practices. We will have special morning classes and evening satsang. In addition we will take a 3 Day- 2 Night excursion to Jim Corbett National Wildlife Reserve, with Elephant safari!
